

Student Leadership Camp Frequently Asked Questions

Where will Student Leadership Camp be held?

The Student Leadership Camp will be held at El Buen Pastor, A/G Church in Austin, TX for the first half of the internship. At which point, it will be held at Highland Lakes Camp and Conference Center in Spicewood, TX, the location of TLYM Youth Camp. These locations serve as the central locations for accommodations, etc. Community projects will be held in the Greater Austin Area.

Who will be my teachers or staff?

We have a group of experienced and qualified individuals serving as staff for Leadership Camp, such as, but not limited to: Rev. George Carballo – DYD, Rev. Paulina Solis – Asst. DYD and Julian Macias – TLYM Youth Alive Director.

What sort of things will I be doing?

Student Leadership Camp will be made up of a series of classes, such as, interpreting the Bible, how to preach, how to start a campus club, etc., practical ministry, community outreaches, local church ministry, kids ministry, ministering through human videos, dramas, etc., as well as serving on our TLYM Youth Camp Recreational Staff.

What if I can only commit to part of the Leadership Camp?

We ask all applicants to commit for the full duration of Leadership Camp. This serves for the best interests of the group. Any applicants not able to commit for the full duration of Leadership Camp may result in being denied admission to the internship program.

Will there be background checks for those over 18 years old?

Yes, all applicants and staff over 18 years old will undergo a background check as part of our policy.

What do I do with my application once it's complete?

All forms must be mailed to: Texas Louisiana Youth Ministries – P.O. Box 38751, Houston, TX 77238 before June 1, 2017.

Can I register online?

Unfortunately, at this time, we do not provide online registration for Leadership Camp.

Do I need to have any references?

Yes, each applicant must turn in the pastoral and youth pastor reference forms as part of their application. Any application without references will be considered incomplete.

Will the deposit with my application be credited to my overall registration?

Yes, all applicants accepted into the program will have their deposit go towards their overall registration. First $100 is due by June 15th.

Will it be bilingual?

Yes, our teachers and staff are equipped to provide bilingual instructions.

In case of emergency, who do I contact?

Should there be any emergency during Leadership Camp, please contact our Student Leadership Camp Coordinator – Paulina Solis at (512) 264-5415.

Download Application Online at www.tlym.org